

Still Life-Tablesetting exhibition

The Rahr-West Art Museum, Manitowoc, will open its 12th annual Still Life and Tablesetting exhibition with a public reception 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. this Sunday evening.

Guest speaker at the opening will be Ms. Joan Mott of Bake's of Green Bay. Mott will present a lecture/demonstration at 8 p.m. entitled "I Found It on the Table," and will arrange tableware for formal, casual, and picnic occasions. She will be assisted by Carl Pugh, display manager at the Green Bay store.

With more than 40 years experience as a display artist, decorator and expert as silver specialist, Mott began her career at Ebner's Gift Shop, Green Bay. In the late 1950s, Richard Burnham purchased the business and Mott continued to crystal and Stylist flatware. Her accompanying wall hanging is a 1901 marriage certificate.

GOLDEN TREASURES-Carol Ronning's "Golden Treasures" table is arranged with Nosegay china, Libby